UNSEEN COMPREHENSION

Q1. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Every year in the month of October, we have the wild life week. In that week, we are told how important our forests animals and birds are. Our animals and birds are getting fewer and fewer. Some people kill them for food. Some kill them for their skin, horns, and feathers. Some wicked people kill them for pleasure; some catch beautiful birds in nets and sell them in great profit. In this way many of our wild animals and birds may disappear in few years. It is our moral duty to protect our wild animals and birds. First, we should stop the unwise cutting of forests, because forest is the home of wild animals. We can set apart forest reserves as animal and bird sanctuaries. In these protected areas they can live in peace.
