SESSION 2025-26
ASSIGNMENT - 2

SUBJECT: ENGLISH
Class: VII

SECTION A (READING)

Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

It was a bright morning when Meera and her classmates set out on a nature walk with their science teacher. As they stepped into the forest trail, the sound of city traffic faded behind them, replaced by the soft rustle of leaves, chirping birds, and the distant call of a woodpecker. The sunlight filtered through the tall trees, creating golden patterns on the ground.

Meera was amazed at how different the world felt here. She noticed tiny insects crawling on leaves, colorful butterflies fluttering from one flower to another, and mushrooms growing near old logs. Her teacher pointed out a squirrel nibbling on a nut and explained how each creature, no matter how small, plays a role in the forest.

They stopped near a quiet stream where the water sparkled like glass. "This is a healthy forest," the teacher said. "But many forests are being cut down. When trees disappear, so do the animals and clean air."

Meera felt a sudden sense of responsibility. She realized that enjoying nature also meant protecting it. On their way back, she picked up bits of plastic that other visitors had carelessly dropped. Her small action, she believed, could make a bi
