My friend Pawan, is a seven-years-old boy. He cannot speak, so we understand each other with the help of sign language. He is able to understand what I say. We study in the same class. He is very intelligent.

One day, Pawan was hurt. Some of our friends made fun of him. He was very sad. He made a big cross on a sheet of paper to show that he was very angry.

Pawan ran home after school. I went to his house in the evening. I told him that I loved him because he was a good boy. I also told him that those boys hurt him because they were not good.
